33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess to the glory of God: Jesus Christ is Lord! Amen.

Presentation of Offering

The people gather and disperse, gather and disperse.

It is the way of life with God.

As with the people, so with our time, our talents, and our treasures: the gathering is good, but the giving, the sending out into the world, is even better!

...for the sake of a “future with hope!”

↑Response of Praise

“Song of Hope”

↑Litany of Dedication

God of love and generosity, for all that you have given us,
we give you thanks.

For all that has been gathered here,
we give you thanks.

Give us the strength to be separated and the courage to be commissioned.

Give us hearts of generosity even in the face of uncertainty.

Grant us the wisdom to send ourselves and our money where you would have them go.

Send your Spirit on us and in us, wherever we are, O God, and on this gathering of your gifts, for we have gathered ourselves and our offerings in the name of our Good Shepherd, the One who lives in exile with us, the One who leads us home: In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

Prayers of the People and The Lord’s Prayer
